Using steel track as a template, mark hole centers on drywall. Drill a clean, shallow 1-1/4" diameter hole in the drywall, stopping at the wood header/blocking. Pilot and drill the wood blocking to receive the lag bolt attachment. Set the drywall ring(s) into place, then install track as typical.